Lynn demonstrates how to make your own Onion Soup Mix that can be used to make soup or onion dip. This is similar to the dry onion soup mixes that you can purchase in the grocery store. You can also sprinkle this mixture over a roast in the slow cooker for a great flavor.

Ingredients:

- $\frac{3}{4}$  cup instant dehydrated minced onion
- $\frac{1}{3}$  cup beef bouillon powder
- 4 teaspoons onion powder
- $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon crushed celery seeds
- $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon sugar

Combine all ingredients and store in an airtight container.

About 5 Tablespoons of this mix are equal to 1- $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce package of store bought mix.

To make soup, bring 4 cups of water to a boil, add 4 Tablespoons of mix and simmer for about 10 minutes.
